A Story of Courage

Title: A Story of Courage – Vicki Barrilleaux

When I was diagnosed with cancer, my first thoughts were the moments I would miss in my son's life...

Dear son...

If you are reading this, it means today is your graduation...

...Your first day at grad school...

Today is your wedding

...Today, you are a father...

...I am so sorry to miss this day...

But know I am with you in spirit...

I love you, Mom

When you're a survivor...

Every day is a celebration...

Look to the future...
